FSC-STD-50-001 (V1-2) REQUIREMENTS FOR USE OF THE FSC TRADEMARKS BY CERTIFICATE HOLDERS

Code	INT-STD-50-001_21
Requirement (s)	Clause 1.1, 1.16, 11.4, 11.6, 11.7, FAQ #21
Publication date	24 June 2016
Is it acceptable to use the FSC trademarks as segregation marks? And does the segregation mark need to be approved by a certification body prior to use? Yes, the FSC trademarks may be used for the purpose of identifying FSC certified materials in the chain of custody before the products are finished: FSC treats this as a segregation mark. These segregation marks for internal use should be reproduced in such a way that they comply as closely as possible with the standard FSC-STD-50-001. It is not required to submit segregation marks to the certification body for approval prior to use. All segregation marks shall be removed before the products go to the final point of sale, or are delivered to non-certified organizations.

Code	INT-STD-50-001_17
Requirement (s)	Clause 1.4
Publication date	11 April 2014
A Certificate Holder has certification for chain of custody with controlled wood included in their certificate scope. According to FSC-STD-50-001 V1-2 clause 1.4 it is not allowed to use FSC trademarks to promote FSC Controlled Wood. Is it allowed to publish the certificate document issued by the certification body on the website when the controlled wood scope is mentioned on it? The certificate document with controlled wood in the scope may be published online or displayed on a wall in public.

Code	INT-STD-50-001_9
Requirement (s)	Clause 1.6
Publication date	07 February 2012
When a printed publication is FSC labeled, is it allowed to print calculations on savings on environmental resources based on the choice of paper? The calculations may be printed provided the following conditions to reduce the risk of confusion are met: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a.) There shall be no reference to FSC within these calculations b.) A reference to the party responsible for the calculation shall be provided c.) Calculations may not be placed in a way which implies connection to FSC. If it is not possible to place the calculations anywhere but close to FSC label (exclusion zone shall be always respected), there shall be a disclaimer: "FSC is not responsible for any calculations on saving resources by choosing this paper."

Which trademark symbol should be used when creating on product labels, promotional panels or in any other use for Russian and CIS markets?

The symbol ® or ™ may not be used for unregistered trademarks in Russia and the following CIS countries: Armenia, Azerbaijan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan.

Therefore, no symbol may be used next to the initials "FSC" when creating on-product labels, promotional panels or in any other use for Russia, until the initials "FSC" are successfully registered. The symbol ® shall continue to be used for the FSC logo (checkmark-and-tree) and the name "Forest Stewardship Council".

No symbol may be used next to the FSC logo, the initials "FSC" and the name "Forest Stewardship Council" when creating on-product labels, promotional panels or in any other use for the aforementioned CIS countries, until the trademarks are registered.

Requirement (s)	Clause 1.15, Annex 1
Publication date	31 August 2014
In January 2014 FSC reverted a change made to Annex 1 to the attributed trademark symbol for the FSC trademarks in Hong Kong. The trademark symbol changed from ® back to TM. Does this affect the production of already approved artwork? Companies affected by this change which have approved artwork with the ® registered trademark symbol for distribution in Hong Kong may continue to produce, distribute and sell into the market product using the registered trademark symbol on the FSC trademarks for a period of 12 months, expiring 1 September 2015, with an additional liquidation period of six months which shall expire 1 March 2016. All new artwork sent for approval shall use the trademark symbol TM.

Code	INT-STD-50-001_20
Requirement (s)	Clause 1.15, Annex 1
Publication date	11 February 2015

Does publishing an update to Annex 1 have an effect on already approved artwork? And is there a transition period for changing from one symbol to the other?

Updates to Annex 1 are effective immediately. However, all products and promotional materials using previously approved artwork may continue in production and distribution. The change in the symbol shall be implemented when the artwork is up for next revision, unless this takes place during the transition period. During the transition period of 12 months either the old or the new symbol may be used. The transition period is aiming to mitigate time and cost pressures for designs already in planning at the time of the publication of an update.

Requirement (s)	Clause 1.16
Publication date	01 March 2011

Shall the organization submit artwork of all new reproductions of FSC trademarks to the certification body for approval?

Provided that the organization establishes a good record of correct trademark use, it will not be necessary to re-submit labels for the same product type or with the same placement on the product, or for repeated use of promotional artwork.

This clause means in general all new reproductions of FSC trademarks require approval from certification bodies. However, in the following cases, it is not necessary for certificate holders to re-submit artwork for approval:

1. A generic format to be approved by certification bodies for certificate holders to use it on a range of products when the following conditions are met, certification body may opt to approve a generic format to be used on a range of products:

The organization must have established a good track record of correct trademark use
 The label is used on the same product type without any alterations , i.e. any changes to the label, such as label product type, label color...etc require a further approval
 The label remains the same and the exclusion zone around it is respected
 Different designs won't affect the area where the FSC label is placed

2. Repeated use of promotional artwork

Requirement (s)	Clause 2.3
Publication date	16 February 2012
Is it possible to display the FSC label inside packaging? No, the only exemption is when there are legal requirements for the packaging that make the placement of the FSC label on the outside impossible (e.g. pharmaceutical industry).

Code	INT-STD-50-001_08
Requirement (s)	Clauses 2.6 and 2.6.1
Publication date	31 January 2012
When a product is FSC labeled can it carry marks of other forest certification schemes? No, the product may not carry marks of other forest certification schemes. It would not be allowed to double label a product for example. However in FSC labeled publications such as magazines or printed advertising material the marks of other certification schemes may be used for product promotion or educational purposes as long as there are no claims about the paper of the publication being certified against the other certification scheme.

Requirement (s)	Clauses 3.3 and 3.3.1
Publication date	08 November 2011
Can the mini label in a bigger format without standard label text be used on a wine cork even if there is enough space to include the standard label? Yes, use of the mini label in a bigger format instead of the standard label on a wine cork is possible, when it is technically difficult to produce legible standard label text on the rough surface of the wine cork.

Code	INT-STD-50-001_06
Requirement (s)	Clauses 3.3 and 3.3.1
Publication date	08 November 2011
When is the mini label permitted? 1. The mini label may always be used in the following cases: a.) Paper size A5 or smaller b.) Packaging 500ml volume or less 2. As for paper size bigger than A5, the standard label should be used when possible. This means when there is sufficient clear unprinted space available for the standard label, the standard label should be used. When there is not, the mini label may be used. NOTE: the area intended for writing or printing on letter templates or postcards is not considered as clear unprinted space. 3. Certification bodies (CBs) may approve the use of the mini label without checking with FSC on grounds of space restrictions. 4. The following criteria are provided for CBs to use in judging cases where the mini label is requested to be used on paper size bigger than A5: a) Check if the printed piece is fully covered with texts, info, and graphics, and then determine the area where the label is to be placed on the piece b) Check if there is printable space available for the standard label in that area without requiring a redesign c) If yes, the standard label shall be used d) If not, the mini label can be used

Requirement (s)	Clause 4.5
Publication date	11 April 2014

A supplier may use a third party to produce part of their client's product even though the client is not aware of this arrangement. For example, Printer A may request Printer B to produce glossy covers for a magazine, even though the client X is unaware of Printer B.

What are the requirements for the agreement of this arrangement when the client requests their own FSC trademark license code to be applied to the product and it will be applied by a supplier they are not aware of?

When two Certificate Holders enter into an agreement where the supplier agrees to label the product with the client's FSC trademark license code, but the labels are to be applied by an FSC certified third party whom the supplier wishes to remain anonymous from the client, the following conditions shall be met:

- i) The agreement shall designate the supplier's certification body as responsible for approval of product labels and ensuring that the buyer's code is only used on products which are supplied to that buyer, and
- ii) The third party must keep data relating to the use of the buyer's labels separately or easily available for the certification body's review.

Requirement (s)	Clause 10.11
Publication date	01 March 2011
Is it possible to add “contents” to the list of words for product types? No, it is not allowed to use “contents” as a product type. The product types are very general in nature, more of general material types actually, such as paper, wood, board, rubber etc. For the sake of clarity there are few real product names included, such as packaging. The intention is to keep the list at a very general level so it is not allowed to use “contents” as a product type.

Code	INT-STD-50-001_15
Requirement (s)	Clause 10.13
Publication date	17 October 2013 (Updated 28 June 2017)
Can an additional statement related to FSC be added within the clear space surrounding the label (exclusion zone)? An additional statement clarifying which component of a product is FSC certified may be added within the exclusion zone. Reference to more information about the FSC label (e.g. the FSC website address) may be added within the exclusion zone.

Code	INT-STD-50-001_01
Requirement (s)	Clause 10.15
Publication date	01 March 2011
Is it allowed to use a bilingual mini label? Normally it’s not allowed as the mini label can include only one language due to small size of the mini label. Only when the following conditions are met, CBs may approve use of a bilingual mini label: Governmental or legal requirements due to a multitude languages used in a country. The product that meets the requirements of using a mini label such as a swing tag, is distributed in multiple markets that require two major languages to be displayed on the product.
